FREE Kidz Night Out 2018

Wye Mountain: Tuesday, July 17 – Thursday, July 19

Adona: Tuesday, July 24 – Thursday, July 26

6:00-8:00 p.m., nightly

Round up kids, grandkids, neighbors, and strangers for Barn Bash 2018 – three fun-filled nights of food, friendship, and finding life! Kidz Night Out is created for students and children rising 6th grade and under. (Young children should be able to toilet themselves.) Two identical Bashes will occur at Wye Mountain Church, followed a week later at Adona Church. Each evening will consist of a free meal, followed by singing, learning, playing, crafting, and hanging out.

Barn Bash is themed around the Barn Brothers, Luke and Duke, who will take us back in time to guide us through the life of Moses. We'll discover that God can use us despite our failures and limitations; that remembering God keeps us out of trouble; and that God gives us second chances when we mess up. You can help!

Volunteers

- Everyone can make overt, personal invitations to students, children, and their families in the community. Invite your neighbors' kids – even if you have to introduce yourself.
- Contact Barn Bash coordinators: David Harmon, Jeanne Russenberger, Shelly Leach, Winona Worm, Donna Cossey, Willy Nowell, Becky Gifford, or Richard Gifford to serve any or all nights. There are options!
